

Webinar

Wednesday 5 May 2021

14.00 (CET)

Regulating Working Conditions in Multinational Enterprises During and After the Pandemic

Welcome address

FRANK HENDRICKX

President of IALLJ - University of Leuven

Introduction

MASSIMILIANO DELFINO

University of Naples Federico II

14.15 - First session

Regulation at the supranational level

Chair and discussant

CHARLES F.X. SZYMANSKI

Vytautas Magnus University

Presentations

DONATO GRECO

University of Naples Federico II

Multinational Enterprises' compliance with Labour Standards in International Investment law and Arbitration: a striking balance between business and human rights

SOFIA GUALANDI

University of Strasbourg

The Proposal for an EU Directive on sustainable corporate governance and Human Rights Due Diligence. A new tool to address fundamental social rights violations by MNEs?

SRISHTI SINGH

UN-mandated University for Peace of Costa Rica

*Making corporations accountable:
Who will bell the cat?*

15.15 - Comfort Break

15.30 - Second session

Regulation through transnational social dialogue, collective bargaining and new forms of collective action

Chair and Discussant

EDOARDO ALES

University of Naples Parthenope

Presentations

ANA TERESA RIBEIRO

Portuguese Catholic University of Oporto

Collective bargaining and MNEs and their supply chains

CARLA SPINELLI

University of Bari Aldo Moro

Regulating corporate due diligence: from transnational social dialogue to EU binding rules

MARIANGELA ZITO

University Gabriele D'Annunzio of Chieti-Pescara

The implementation of Global Frameworks Agreements to protect workers' rights throughout the global supply chains during the Covid-19 pandemic and beyond

16.30 - End

ORGANIZING COMMITTEE

SILVIA BORELLI (Lavoro e Diritto), WILLIAM CHIAROMONTE (Giornale di Diritto del Lavoro e Relazioni Industriali), EMANUELE DAGNINO (E-Journal of International and Comparative Labour Studies), MASSIMILIANO DELFINO (Diritti Lavori Mercati), GIUSEPPE ANTONIO RECCHIA (Rivista Giuridica del Lavoro e della Previdenza Sociale), PAOLO TOMASSETTI (Diritto delle Relazioni Industriali)

LINK - <https://bit.ly/3a992Wk>

For further information please contact costantino.cordella@unina.it