

Workshop

"Surveys addressed to Health and Safety Representatives"

Rome, 28-29 March 2019

Venue: INAIL, P.le G. Pastore, 6 - "Sala Castelli" 19th floor

Day 1: 28th March 2019

Language: English (no translation)

2:30pm-3:00pm	Participants registration
3:00pm-4:50pm	Welcome addresses and introduction to the workshop Sergio Iavicoli, Inail, "The INAIL research contribution for workers active participation" 1st part: Survey research results in a comparative approach and perspective at European level Chair: Giuliana Buresti, Inail <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Raffaella Cagliano, Politecnico di Milano, "IMPACT-RLS: the development of a methodology for an extensive periodical survey on the role of Health and Safety Representatives"- Xabier Irastorza, EU-Osha, "Interviewing Health and Safety Representatives in a European enterprise survey – evidence from ESENER"- Claudia Narocki, Istas, "Quantitative and qualitative researches on safety representatives and trade unions' actions on OHS in Spain"- Laurent Vogel, Etui, "Safety reps and trade union strategy: central issues for organizing prevention based on workers' needs"- Antonio Preteroti, Università di Perugia, "The role and the prerogatives of the workers' representatives in the field of health and safety at work, ten years after the entry into force of the legislative decree n. 81/2008: a reading in the light of the results of the IMPACT project"
4:50pm-5:10pm	Coffee break
5:10pm-6:30pm	Discussion Chair: Daniele Di Nunzio, Fondazione Di Vittorio All the participants will be asked to share comments on the following items: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Methodological issues, focusing on the limits and opportunities towards the development of a periodical survey addressed to HS Representative- The importance to integrate the results of international surveys as added value to address policy issues
8:30pm	Social Dinner

Day 2: 29th March 2019

Language: Italian (translation English/Italian)

9:30am–11:00am	2nd part: The role of survey research results to address OSH policy development Chair: Raffaella Cagliano, Politecnico di Milano <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Fabio Boccuni, Giuliana Buresti, Inail, "The Health and Safety Representatives role for an active OSH contribution. The Italian surveys path"- Irene Houtman, Tno, "The importance of HS representatives voice, particularly in the case of psychosocial risk management"- Aditya Kailash Jain, Nottingham University Business School, "The role of workers representatives' participation in OSH policy and practice in the UK"- Stavroula Leka, Cork University Business School, "The role of stakeholder participation in EU OSH policy for managing psychosocial risks at work"
11:00am–11:30am	Coffee break
11:30am–12:30am	Discussion Chair: Paolo Trucco, Politecnico di Milano The participants will be asked to share comments on the following main question: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Thirty years after the publication of the EU Directive 89/391 that formalized the participation of workers in the safety and health at work, what drivers and challenges do arise in the changing world of work? Participants: Sebastiano Calleri (Cgil), Angelo Colombini (Cisl), Irene Houtman (Tno), Xabier Irastorza (EU-Osha), Esther Lynch (Etuc), Silvana Roseto (Uil)
12:30am–1:00pm	Closing remarks Sergio Iavicoli, Inail

oooo