

10th INTERNATIONAL SEMINAR ON INTERNATIONAL AND COMPARATIVE LABOUR LAW

“Labor Rights as Human Rights”

3 June 2024 – 6 June 2024

Ca' Foscari University of Venice

Opening of registration

Dear colleagues and friends,

on January 25, 2024 we will open the registration to participate to the tenth edition of the Seminar on International and Comparative Labour Law to be held at Ca' Foscari University of Venice (Italy), under the direction of Professor Adalberto Perulli and Professor Tiziano Treu.

The seminar is addressed to legal scholars, graduate students and experts specialized in international labour law and labour law. The knowledge of the English language is essential to participate. Since the maximum number of seats is 30, we will give priority to the applications of enrollment which arrive first.

The total cost of the seminar is 1000 Euro + IVA (Vat) (22%) = 1220 Euro, which includes accommodation (IN June 2, OUT June 6, 2024, in a university residence, in a single room with private bathroom), breakfast, meals and administration.

Applications must be submitted by email to isisssl.admin@unive.it and isssl@unive.it by May 6, 2024.

Call for scholarships

ISLSSL Scholarships

With a view to promoting the study of labour law and social security among legal scholars, we start the selection process for the award of six scholarships (1,000 euros each) which includes accommodation (IN June 2nd-OUT June 6th), in a university residence, in a single room with private bathroom, breakfast, meals and administration expenses.

Conditions for the granting of scholarships are:

1. Only candidates coming from different countries from Italy are eligible.
2. Maximum age of forty (40) years: preference will be given to those with less than 35 years.
3. Those who have benefited from a grant from the ISLSS are not eligible.
4. Scholarship winners must write a paper for the Young Scholars' Session of the Seminar. The papers will be examined for a publication.
5. Furthermore, each scholarship winner must submit to the International Society of Labour Law and Social Security, within 30 days of the seminar conclusion, a report on its activities and contents.

6. Both sexes are equally welcome but we encourage nominations from female candidates.

7. Applications must be submitted to the national association of labour law and social security that is the country of nationality of the applicant, accompanied by the applicant's curriculum vitae, motivations for participating in the seminar, research interests, university affiliation and other elements and requirements that the national association considers relevant. The same application has to be sent in copy to isssl@unive.it. Applications for ISLSSL scholarships must be submitted by 1 April 2024.

8. In order to ensure the widest scholarships international distribution, ISLSSL will agree one scholarship to each country, so that if the national association shall receive more than one application, a selection procedure will start, based on considerations of merit and experience, (set by each national association); if that none of the candidates is eligible to be a beneficiary of the scholarship, the selection will be declared unsuccessful.

9. National associations must notify ISLSSL by 5 April 2024 the name, CV and other information provided by the candidate that has been selected. In the event the number of candidates nominated by national associations is greater than the total number of scholarships available (6), ISLSSL through the International Scientific Committee of the Seminar, shall select the six candidates. This Committee will have a maximum of 10 days to identify the six candidates that will receive the scholarships. The decision is final and cannot be appealed.

We invite ISLSSL national associations to open immediately the call for the respective scholarship award, establishing deadlines and places for applications that will give an appropriate time for selection, to communicate the decision to the ISLSSL within the deadline.
