

2nd E.C.O.L.L.

EARLY CAREER SEMINARS ON COMPARATIVE LABOUR LAW

Salina (Aeolian Islands) 6-9 October 2024

Unjustified dismissal and judicial compensation: which role for the judge?

In 2022, LLC initiated a cycle of seminars dedicated to early career scholars (including, but not limited to, PhD students) with the aim to promote comparative labour law methodologies, and to nurture the dialogue between early career scholars and more established researchers.

After an opening session in which theoretical background is provided by established scholars, 20 early carrier scholars shall work in different groups and present the results in a conclusive open session

Marzia Barbera - Brescia University
Introduction and coordination

Tatiana Sachs - Université Paris Nanterre
Keynote speech

Presentation of national cases and discussion

Jesus Cruz Villalon - Universidad de Sevilla
Valerio Speciale - Università di Chieti-Pescara
Rüdiger Krause - Universität Göttingen
Mette Søsted Hemme - Aarhus Universitet
David Mangan - Maynooth University

Conclusions

Tiziano Treu - Università Cattolica di Milano