

Best Practices in Comparative Labour Law

Università di Napoli Federico II
Dipartimento di Giurisprudenza
Aula Pessina
Corso Umberto I, 40
May 5th, 2023

Welcome address
FRANK HENDRICKX
President of IALLJ - University of Leuven

LORENZO ZOPPOLI
University of Naples Federico II

Introduction
MASSIMILIANO DELFINO
University of Naples Federico II

15.00 - 16.15 - First session Comparative Studies and Methodology

Chair and discussant
MATTHEW W. FINKIN
University of Illinois

Presentations

CLAIRE MARZO,
EMMANUELLE MAZUYER
Paris East University, Université Lyon 2

Comparing platform workers' statuses and social protections using legal and empirical methodology: CEPASSOC and TRAPLANUM projects

MICHELE MAZZETTI
University of Florence

Comparative Legal Analysis at the Council of the European Union: The Two Proposals for Directives on Equality Bodies

JOE ATKINSON
University of Sheffield

Putting Comparative Labour Law into Practice: Judicial Comparativism in Domestic Courts

VIRGINIA AMOROSI
University of Naples Federico II

Uniform plots. Comparing Labour Problems in the Legal Culture of Italian and French Journals between the 19th and 20th Centuries

16.15 - 17.30 - Second session Social Rights and Economic Initiative

Chair and discussant
MANFRED WEISS
J.W. Goethe University of Frankfurt

Presentations

MARIA TERESA AMBROSIO
University of Molise

Models and practices of integration of foreigners through work. A comparative study between Italy and Spain

SIMONE CAFIERO
University of Naples Federico II

The right to work as a social right in the Italian Constitution and the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union. A constitutional perspective

CAMILLA FAGGIONI
University of Trento

Dock work: a comparative analysis of the Italian, French and Spanish legal systems

17.30 - 19.00 - Third session Digital Work

Chair and discussant
CHARLES F.X. SZYMANSKI
University of Bialystok

Presentations

JUAN PENA MONCHO
Universitat Pompeu Fabra, Barcelona

The right to information of workers' representatives regarding algorithms and AI at work. A comparison between the Spanish and Italian legal approach

ARCHITA MUHAPATRA
University of Tilburg

A Comparative Analysis of the Role of Key Actors in Recognizing Rights of Delivery Riders in the UK and Spain

THANDEKILE PHULU
Triumphant College, Namibia

The conflict between the employee's right to disconnect and the employer's prerogative to dismiss for off-duty misconduct: A comparative study of South Africa, USA and UK

Concluding Remarks

EDOARDO ALES
University of Naples Parthenope

ORGANIZING COMMITTEE

SILVIA BORELLI (University of Ferrara - Lavoro e Diritto),

WILLIAM CHIAROMONTE (University of Florence - Giornale di Diritto del Lavoro e di Relazioni Industriali),

EMANUELE DAGNINO (University of Modena and Reggio Emilia - Diritto delle Relazioni Industriali, E-Journal of International and Comparative Labour Studies), MASSIMILIANO DELFINO (University of Naples Federico II - Diritti Lavori Mercati),

GIUSEPPE ANTONIO RECCHIA (University of Bari 'Aldo Moro' - Rivista Giuridica del Lavoro e della Previdenza Sociale)

SEMINAR SECRETARIAT

COSTANTINO CORDELLA (costantino.cordella@unina.it), GIANLUCA CIRILLO (gianluca.cirillo@unina.it),

VITTORIA ZIVIELLO (vittoria.ziviello@unina.it)

This seminar is financially supported by the FRA 'Nomad' project of the University of Naples Federico II.