

Workshop

GENDER EQUALITY: BETWEEN HARD AND SOFT LAW?

Gender equality is an issue considered in numerous hard and soft law sources.

At the seminar, we will consider the ILO approach to this topic, as well as national experiences in combating gender discrimination.

The current EU developments in the field of due diligence and sustainability reporting will also be discussed, as they might contribute to ensuring true gender equality in European states.

Giovedì 20 giugno 2024

Inizio ore 15:00

Universitas Mercatorum

Piazza Mattei, 10 – Roma

 zoom  YouTube

Per adesioni inviare una e-mail a:

adesioni.eventi@unimercatorum.it

PROGRAMMA

INSTITUTIONAL GREETINGS

Giovanni Cannata

Magnifico Rettore Universitas Mercatorum

INTRODUCES AND MODERATES

Marco Mocella

Module Responsible Gender equality and elimination of discrimination Universitas Mercatorum

FIST SESSION

The international framework: standards, practice and jurisprudence

Jean Michel Servais

President-elect of the ISLLSS, Former Director of the ILO, Guest Professor at Gerona (Spain) University

Elena Sychenco

St. Petesburg University

Olga Martin Gonzalez

Project officer EACEA

Anna Casalino

Federico II University, Naples

SECOND SESSION

The Italian approach: experience and perspectives

Valerio Maio

UnitelmaSapienza

Tiziana Pompei

Vice Secretary General of Unioncamere

Mario Cerbone

University of Sannio and Councillor for Equality - Province of Avellino

Anna Danesi

Councillor for Equality - Province of Varese

Bianca Maria Orciani

Councillor for Equality - Province of Ancona

SCIENTIFIC COMMITTEE

Marco Mocella, Valentina Aniballi, Mario Cerbone, Katia Fiorenza, María Luisa Molero Marañón, Ana Murcia Clavería